

THE FRIENDS OF GAINSBOROUGH OLD HALL ASSOCIATION

Registered Charity No 229837 A Member of BAFM

www.gainsborougholdhall.co.uk

officialfoha@hotmail.com

Paul Howitt-Cowan Tel 01427 612017

An evening with Angelic Voices – Lincoln Cathedral Choir in Concert

Saturday 20 June 2009 @ 7.00pm

In All Saints' Church, Gainsborough

To celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of The Friends of Gainsborough Old Hall which was founded in 1949.

Tickets £5 each on the door or from Old Hall Gift Shop

The full choir of Lincoln Cathedral – The Men, Boys & Girls will perform an 80 minute concert [ with a short interval after 40 minutes] a little longer than is usual, in the reordered church of All Saints', Gainsborough which makes a capital setting for this celebration, in the form of the Gift of Music.

The church seats 750 people.

Proceeds after expenses, to the Lincoln Cathedral Music Appeal.

The Choir will be given a guided tour of the Old Hall before rehearsals, after which, they will partake of tea – bangers & mash at Gainsborough House catered by Zena's Top Nosh. The bell ringers will be welcoming people to the concert before it begins at 7.00pm .

Everyone is welcome to the Concert.

The programme:

G. F. Handel:       Zadok the Priest

W. Byrd:            Laudibus in Sanctis
W. Byrd:            Ave verum
T. Tallis:           Loquebantur variis linguis
A. Brumel:          Agnus Dei (from Missa Et ecce terrae motus)

Organ

O. Messiaen:       O sacrum convivium
G. Fauré:           Ave verum
F. Poulenc:         O magnum mysterium
F. Poulenc:         Tristis est anima mea
F. Martin:          Agnus Dei (from Mass for double choir)

---Interval---

J. Stainer:         I saw the Lord
E. Whitacre:       I thank You God for most this amazing day

Organ

L. Berkeley:        The Lord is my shepherd
F. Mendelssohn:    Hear my prayer

[E. Whitacre:       With a lily in your hand]