

The Young Tennyson

THE YOUNG TENNYSON IN LINCOLNSHIRE

A talk and poetry readings by local historian, Nic Lance, including some of Tennyson's humorous Lincolnshire dialect poetry, read by acclaimed dialect speaker, Loretta Rivett.

27th June 2009 @ 2.00 pm

Tickets £3 from Gainsborough
Old Hall Gift Shop

Venue: Gainsborough House
opposite Gainsborough Old Hall

Telephone 01427 612017

The talk will be looking at Tennyson's childhood influences: his family, the Wolds landscape, the brook, his school in Louth - which he hated, and the seaside at Mablethorpe - where the family went on holidays.
